

Mi Sug JIN, Ed.D

Dr. Misug Jin has worked as a senior fellow in Korea Research Institute for Vocational Education and Training (KRIVET) since 1997. Previously she worked as the Director of HR Research Department and the Director of Career Development Center of KRIVET.

She has also served as a member of several national committees related to education and HR. She had researched on HR policy at macro level and worked on career development from a life-long perspective.

Recently, she has been working on core competences of Korean college students. She had worked with several international organizations, such as OECD, ILO, UNESCO, etc. She got her doctoral degree in education from Harvard University and MA, BA from Seoul National University.